

LUX EXPOSÉ

Once a haven for artists, intellectuals, and families, Manhattan's Upper West Side has always been celebrated for its cultural richness and understated elegance. Today, the area is experiencing a renaissance as new luxury condominium developments emerge, offering modern opulence mixed with the neighborhood's cherished historical allure. Here, we explore five premier residences available for discerning buyers seeking both heritage and sophistication in one of New York City's most beloved neighborhoods.

720 West End Avenue Residence 8C – $4.6 million

An architectural gem designed by Emery Roth in 1927, 720 West End Avenue has been meticulously transformed into a luxury residential destination, preserving its historic roots while embracing modern elegance. Led by acclaimed designer Thomas Juul-Hansen, the building's 131 residences offer top-tier luxury complemented by over 30,000 square feet of amenities. One standout, Residence 8C, is a three-bedroom, three-and-a-half-bathroom space listed at $4.6 million. With over 2,000 square feet of living space, this residence boasts a seamless open-concept layout, oversized windows, and exquisite finishes that exude sophistication. Offering everything from private parking to a state-of-the-art fitness center, 720 West End Avenue sets a new benchmark for luxury living on the Upper West Side.

<https://luxexpose.com/top-luxury-condos-on-manhattans-upper-west-side/>